Outdoor Worship Continues

Dr. Mike Graves is out of the country this week, so we are sharing some images from our first outdoor worship of the season. Mike's columns will return in the next issue of the newsletter.

If you've never tried our 9:00 a.m. outdoor service, you'll want to check it out this summer. While all the familiar parts of worship remain, there's something different about worshipping amidst the sounds of nature and the neighborhood. Different musical guests will be part of the service throughout the summer.

On Sun., May 28, worshippers and passersby were asked to write a prayer on our sidewalks with chalk, and children enjoyed bubbles and coloring on the sidewalk.

June Collection Connection

In June, our Collection Connection is gathering supplies for Della Lamb's summer education program. Della Lamb helps students continue to grow in their love for learning and skills during the summer months. The program especially needs notebook paper, pens and alarm clocks (because everyone has to learn how to get themselves up on time for school or work). Your gifts to our students may be placed in the basket in our parlor.

Hartman Elementary School Outdoor Classroom Dedicated

On May 25 students, school personnel, and volunteers gathered to dedicate the newly rebuilt Hartman Elementary School Outdoor Classroom. The project was a collaborative effort of the Church of the Resurrection (United Methodist Church), Kansas City Public Schools, and Country Club Christian Church.

Church of the Resurrection's Thursday Construction Crew donated many hours of skilled labor and the cost of renting construction equipment. The school district supplied landscaping materials and secured appropriate authorizations for the effort.

Our church's Koinonia Sunday School Class donated funds for the lumber and other materials. Our Hartman and Metro Missions volunteers helped initiate the project and oversee its progress. Grace at Work participants prepared the site and other volunteers completed landscaping in time for the dedication ceremony.

The classroom replaces the original outdoor stage and seating and includes several new design improvements. It provides comfortable space for learning and activities in which students may also enjoy the beauty of nature and health benefits of being outside.

Thank You!

By Rachel Clement, Director of Finance

I love the stewardship theme for the year! When I first heard it my reaction was “Of course!” Of course the stewardship committee would chose a theme that fits this church so well. You couldn’t be more welcoming. To me this theme is more than welcoming those that walk through the doors of the church. It is all you do. From a mission trip to Mungeli Christian Hospital in India to backsnacks for Harvesters. You not only say all are welcome here but we love you and care about you even if you aren’t within our four walls.

I don’t always get to see your work in person, but I feel it every time I write a check. I feel it when I write a check for the Virginia Reed food drive. Or this year when it was time to distribute the Easter offering, can I say I was blown away by your generosity for the Tiny House Project. But I can also feel the welcome in your everyday giving. The giving that is the life of this church. The giving that makes programs happen and keeps this building open for the community.

As you respond to this year’s campaign, we hope you will think about your level of giving. The stewardship committee has asked that you prayerfully consider a 10 percent increase in your pledge. Everyone’s personal story is different, and the decision on how much to give is a personal one. Your gifts matter, no matter the amount. We currently have almost 100 giving units increasing their pledge. That’s almost half of you that have turned in your pledge cards! Givers on all levels are increasing. Almost half of these increases are over the suggested 10 percent.

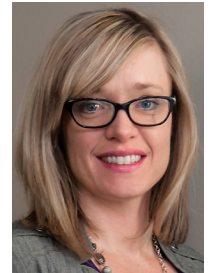

There are many ways to make your monthly or annual gifts. We offer electronic giving via your checking account or credit card. Many members gift stock to the church. Then of course we always accept your cash or check! If you would like to discuss your pledge or giving, please contact me. My office hours are Monday (8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.), Tuesday and Thursday (8:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m.). Even if you don’t have a question or concern, pop in and say hi so I can put a face with a name.

Thank you for all your thoughtful and generous support of your church.

Faith and Grief Luncheon

In the Wake of Suicide

One of life’s biggest struggles is dealing with the loss of a loved one. When you lose a loved one to suicide, the process of grief includes reconciling your emotions with a search for answers to the big question - why? Jennifer Jones-Lacy will share her story of grief and healing at our Faith and Grief Lunch, Tues., June 6 at Noon, at Village Presbyterian Church. Everyone is welcome.

The Faith and Grief Lunch Ministry offers a safe place for those who grieve to remember, listen, and pray together. The meal begins at Noon and ends promptly at 1:00 p.m., on the first Tuesday of every month. Everyone is welcome – those of all faiths as well as those who profess no spiritual beliefs. The complimentary lunch is provided by the sponsoring churches. A free will offering basket is available for those who wish to support this ministry. Lunches are hosted at Village Presbyterian Church, 6641 Mission Road, Prairie Village, KS.

To register: (469) 251-9612 or www.faithandgrief.org

For information: (816) 381-9249 or care@cccckc.org

The lunches are a collaboration of five churches: St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church, St. John’s United Methodist Church, Second Presbyterian Church, Village Presbyterian Church, and Country Club Christian Church.

William Rebman, 11 years old and a member of Boy Scout Troop 84, was recently presented with the 911 Hero Award by the Mid-America Regional Council's Public Safety Communications Program and the Kansas City Missouri Fire Department. William called 911 and started CPR on his unconscious mother, just a few weeks after taking CPR training with Troop 84.

Perhaps the oldest, continuous running program in the church is our Boy Scout program. Organized in 1923, Boy Scout Troop 84 is for boys ages 11 to 18. Cub Scout Pack 84 works with boys in first through fifth grade. Troop 84, which has produced more than 400 Eagle Scouts, meets Monday nights during the school year

Community Camp Connections

By Rev. Monica Lewis, Minister to Children, Students and Families

Just a few short months ago, I wrote a column for this very newsletter about Christian Community Camp. I wrote about taking my daughter and the way I initially pictured camp—being on vacation with 100 of your closest co-workers; about seeing people eating breakfast in their pajamas who you typically only see on Sunday mornings. Anyone who has ever been on a mission trip or traveled with new friends from church knows that there’s a special kind of bond that occurs when you’ve seen someone’s bed head.

Patty Love mentioned to me that she sat behind my daughter in our outdoor worship this past Sunday. Patty asked Ellie Kate if she was ready for Community Camp. Ellie Kate’s reply was, “Yeah! I’m already packed.” And she was. An entire week early. Part of that is because this mama will be wearing my mom and pastor hat at the same time during camp. But most of the reason is that we’re both eager to spend the week out there!

When Patty told me about this short conversation with my daughter, I smiled because it was a sweet reminder of what this experience is about—connection.

Ellie Kate is connected to Patty Love because Patty spent her own time and money providing painting classes to our camp participants last year and my daughter proudly displays her mountain painting above her art desk. She’s connected to Betsy Wilson, who she first met at camp three summers ago and who spent the last year teaching Ellie Kate’s Sunday school class. Betsy can ALWAYS count on a few hugs when she sees E.K. at church. When we left the building last Sunday, Ellie Kate yelled, “See you at camp, Miss Betsy!” She’s connected to Nancy Kupzyk, who she met at camp when she was 2-years-old. Nancy also taught Ellie Kate’s 3 & 4-year-old Sunday school class.

Just this past month, when she lost 3 teeth within a week, we were reminded of her first lost tooth that happened while eating breakfast at Community Camp. When we didn’t have anything to put the tooth in, Becky Hopkins gave Ellie Kate a small bag that she had been given by her secret pal. That’s still E.K.’s Tooth Fairy bag. Each time she loses a tooth, she talks about Becky.

During communion time last Sunday, she wanted to run to the back of the sanctuary to get served by Ben and Elizabeth Crocker. E.K. calls Elizabeth, “Teenage Elizabeth.” And guess where that started?...Community Camp.

Each year, my daughter’s life is more connected. It’s sweeter. It’s richer. It’s rooted in faith-based relationships with so many people who are part of our church. For so many of these, we have Community Camp thank.

If you’re not headed to Colorado with us this year, we sure do hope you can make it June 9-16, 2018!
