Children's and Student Ministry Renovation Team Celebrates Halfway Mark!

Since March of last year, the Children's and Student Ministries Renovation Team, team led by Lesley Holt and consisting of John Bartlett, Lori Bennett, Tepring Crocker, Craig Doty and Dana Flora, have quietly been dreaming, researching, and organizing the structures and systems that will be the foundation for vital children and student ministries.

Some of the many accomplishments are exciting and visible, a lot of them are much less exciting and even tedious! All lay the groundwork for a strong, sustainable ministry. Founding a sustainable ministry requires the efforts of a whole community. It can not be done by a valiant few or a brilliant leader (and believe me we have those in Lesley Holt and Monica Lewis and the ministry teams). If you would like to join the Children's and Student Ministry as a volunteer or a leader, speak to any member of the Renovation Team or Monica Lewis. We invite you to be present to our children so they will continue to grow in the knowledge and love of God. If you cannot volunteer at this time, please lift your heart in prayer every now and then.

Upcoming Faith Formation Groups

Church Words

This class will help you unpack some of the daunting "churchy" words and understand and deepen your faith along the way. Taught by Dr. Meredith Holladay. Sundays, Apr. 19-May 17, 9:55-10:55 a.m.

Faith Academy

Designed for those who seek to stretch the mind and expand the heart to explore new paths of faithful living, Faith Academy involves reading an academic text and discussing it in class with a clergy person or professor as mentor and guide. Dr. Mike Graves, Professor of Preaching at St. Paul School of Theology, will lead a class on Biblical interpretation and sermon writing. If you have a scripture and you need a sermon, what are the next steps? The class will meet two evenings to begin the process. Then Mike will preach the sermon on Sunday morning. The class will then meet for a third session to debrief. Apr. 20, 27 and May 4.

You're Invited

You're invited to the wedding of Meredith Holladay, Minister of Spiritual Formation, and Zach Walker at 3:30 p.m. Friday, March 6, 2015, at Village Presbyterian Church (6641 Mission Road, Prairie Village, KS 66208). A short reception will follow in the Friendship Hall.

If You Had Faith

by Dr. R. Glen Miles

If you had faith (and you do), you would be able to take on the world in all its beauty and ugliness. Even if you are awash in doubt, even if you are barely hanging on to a thread of faith and it feels like you are about to fall into a pit of despair and darkness, you have enough, more than enough to get through.

I know, I know, you may wonder if that isn't just sanctified self-help language. You may think that is what the preacher is supposed to say, sort of a holy pat on the back, a sacred "attaboy, don't worry." Well, I don't blame you really.

Maybe you are like the character in John Updike's novel, A Month of Sundays, who reports, "I have no faith. Or, rather, I have faith, but it doesn't seem to apply." Jesus would say, even a tiny kernel of faith is more than enough.

"If you had faith," Jesus says, "You could make this tree be uprooted and planted in the sea." Don't get too caught up in what that means. It is not about doing magic tricks. It is not about performing miracles. It is hyperbole, exaggerated speech.

Jesus is making the point that if we look around, if we look inside, we'll see that we do indeed have enough faith or endurance or courage or honesty or justice or trust or belief to get through whatever this life tosses at us. Jesus wants us to see that the strength for following God, for being a disciple of Christ, comes from God's very spirit.

Thomas Graham, the dean of a theological school, says that "Faith is reason gone courageous – not the opposite of reason to be sure, but something more than reason and never satisfied by reason alone. A step always remains beyond the edge of light." Faith, in order for it to grow, needs something more than comfort. It needs the challenge of a life lived in love. It's not always easy but if you have faith (and you do) you will be able to follow in the path of Jesus named love and mercy.

Grace and peace to you,

It Takes a Village

By Allie Cobb, Director of Student Ministries

The saying goes, “It takes a village to raise a child.” I happen to think it takes a congregation. Since our newly formed Student Ministry Team began its work in December 2014 we have already begun to do great things together to help the students of our congregation continue to grow in their faith and relationships with one another.

A few weeks ago with the help of caring members of our congregation we were able to raise over $950 for Harvesters Community Food Network. On “Souper Bowl Sunday” we had a dozen middle and high school students standing outside the sanctuary in aprons and holding stock pots to collect donations. Their goal was to raise $500 and they almost doubled that goal! How amazing is that?!?

In mid-January we hosted our first-ever High School Music Night. We had 23 high school students come and share their love of music, and pizza. It was such an amazing sight to see. A room full of students from different schools coming together over a love of music.

The reason I am mentioning these events is because without the help of dedicated church volunteers they would not have been as successful. I know in everyone’s busy schedules it might seem impossible to find an hour or two to volunteer. I am fortunate enough to see the incredible ways that people here at Country Club Christian Church step up every day to help support Student Ministry and for that I am eternally grateful. I know that you might be already feeling low on spare time, but trust me when I tell you that any extra time you can give our students is time VERY well spent. I promise your life will be changed by your service!

A Full Year

By Rev. Monica Lewis, Minister to Children, Youth and Families

It's been a full year since our church began renovating our Ministries to Children and Students. A full year! When we began this process, we talked about how we were going to "renovate" by building on our solid foundation and creating systems and structures that would create sustainability in our ministries...about how we want to foster lifelong connections among children, students and adults.

I wish you could see the folder on my Google Drive labeled "CCCC Ministry Architects." It is packed with hours of work and documents. But when I look at it, I don't just see documents. I see the people behind them.

I see Tepring Crocker at her computer creating the process for communicating with families so that they are aware of every opportunity to help foster their child's faith development and relationships within the church.

I see Lesley Holt pouring her heart into meeting after meeting so that our Renovation Team can stay on track. I see meals around her kitchen table and I think about the emails she sends to me even while she's on vacation.

I see Heidi Hicks' name on a volunteer spreadsheet and I think about her volunteering every Sunday teaching the 5- and 6-year-olds and I think about the "Helpers Board" she has in her room.

I see that Kris Brumitt has just updated the "Student Ministry Team meeting minutes" folder and I remember that each of the people on that team spent three hours planning events for our middle and high school students.

I see the receipt for a book I've ordered called Leading a Special Needs Ministry and I think about working with Cindy Irej, talking about and planning how we can help better serve our families...and then I think about Randy Irej greeting our students as they enter their Sunday School room.

I see Dana Flora and Lee Brumitt working to revise our Child Protection Policy so that our children are kept safe in our changing world. I remember the flood of emails sent and the lunches shared as we hammered out this document. You can check out that revised policy on our website!

I run across a note to myself to check in on Jere Hanney's new twin grandbabies and I think about his commitment to teaching our 1st-3rd graders and how excited he was when Tina McGuire, Mary Ann Steinlicht, and Maria Hedrick volunteered to teach, too.

This Sunday, take a minute to stop by the ONE SOLE PURPOSE table in the Parlor to see how your name can tell a story and how your heart can be opened by serving with our children and students.

Monica
