A Vibrant Church, A Vibrant Life

by Dr. R. Glen Miles

Paul Nixon, in his book, I Refuse to Lead a Dying Church, argues that the churches in America today are dying because we have become too comfortable. He picks on pastors mostly. He says that preachers too often avoid challenging themselves. These shepherds of the church no longer have the desire necessary to move a congregation toward greatness, toward new life, toward vitality.

Nixon's premise is simple: "I believe God invites every (congregation) to thrive."

In Jeremiah 23 the prophet looks out at the burnt landscape of what had been a strong and mighty nation and realizes that God still wants them to thrive. God declares through the prophet, "I myself will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the lands where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply."

God did not lose hope in God's flock. Today God looks at the church and that same hope burns deep within the heart of heaven.

Go back in time with me to 1920, to a meeting of about 75 people in Brookside. They wanted to start a church. They had no building. They had no money. They had no pastor. They had just one thing: a vision of a church that could thrive if it gave itself to the work of God, the love of God and the love of neighbor. That group of folks was more than willing to rely on the guidance of the Holy Spirit in order to create a place where grace would be spoken.

The churches that learn to thrive in his new era will be the ones that are willing to dream with God. What about you and your life? Is there something in your world that feels awful, looks endlessly hopeless? I have good news for you. God looks out over the barrenness of your life and expects not despair, not dullness, but life, excitement and more. Someone said, "Faith believes that with God we are never helpless victims."

Our church and your life can experience a renewed sense of hope when we are willing to do whatever it takes to trust in the power of God and the love of each other.

Grace and peace to you,

A Busy Time of Year

By Lindsay Howes, Director of Children's Ministries

It is a busy time of year! Our Children's Ministry Team has been hard at work planning the many exciting activities we have coming up.

Advent in Advance is THIS Sunday, Nov. 23. Brook Howard, a member of our Children's Ministry Team, is the coordinator for this year's event. She has been doing incredible work to make this event extra special for all of our families. We are really excited about the new projects that Brook has created!

Along with our tradition of making the wooden block nativity, this year, you'll have the opportunity to make a "Cookies For Santa" keepsake plate and a jar of cookie mix so you're ready for the big night! I cannot wait to see everyone's excitement as they put together crafts for the holiday season.

A few weeks following we will be having Cookies with Santa in the parlor prior to the church caroling party on Sun., Dec. 7. During Cookies with Santa, children will have a FREE photo taken with Santa. They'll get to exercise their creativity at a cookie decorating station and make some yummy food to share with Santa's reindeer on Christmas Eve. After this fun, children and their families can gather in the Social Hall for chili, neighborhood caroling, and warm drinks from Dave the Coffee Guy!

The entire congregation is invited to join us for the "Christmas Pageant and Praise" on Sun., Dec. 14, at 4:30 p.m. The children will be singing songs, participating in the Nativity story, and adults will get to join us for a sing-a-long!

Then the night we all anticipate— Christmas Eve! Join us for the Family Worship at 5:30 p.m., as we gather all the little angels and shepherds to prepare for Christ's birth.

It's the time of year that can feel exhausting and exciting all at the same time. I hope that we each can take a few minutes every day to remember what this season is truly all about and be thankful for this community of faith.

Happy Holidays,

Presentation on Windows of Kansas City

On Sunday morning, Dec. 7, Bruce Mathews, Kansas City photographer and author of Windows of Kansas City: As Art, History and Inspiration, will speak at 10:00 a.m. in the Social Hall. He will sign books in the Parlor between services and after the 11:00 a.m. service. The books are available in The Well and additional copies will be available at the signing.

Mission Team Opportunities

We will be sending a mission team to Moore, OK, on Apr. 19-24, 2015, to assist in tornado recovery and rebuilding efforts. A tornado devastated Moore and adjacent areas on May 20, 2013. Stay tuned for further information about how to sign up for the team.

If you are interested in becoming a part of the Country Club Christian Church Mission Trip Team that works to establish and maintain partnerships to provide mission teams regionally, nationally, and internationally, please contact Betsy Wilson at betcwilsonkcc@yahoo.com.

We've Got Problems

Rev. Monica Lewis, Minister to Children, Youth and Families

I got an email today from Jere Hanney. He's been serving in our Children's Ministry as a Sunday School teacher this year. It's not unusual to get an email from volunteers or staff on a Monday morning about an issue that surfaced on Sundays or some kind of event that happened that requires creating a procedure in the event it happens again. You know the drill...Mondays... problems...fix them.

Jere sent Lindsay and me one of those emails. Here's part of what he said: "Also, if possible we might want to consider arranging the room for three tables. Lately there have been enough kids that they can barely crowd around the two tables..."

WAHOO!!!! That's my response to that problem. How cool is that!? That's a great email to open up on a Monday!

My reply to Jere was something in the form of "WAHOO!!" only I expanded my thoughts a little more—but just a little. He agreed when he replied, "These truly are the right sort of challenges to have to deal with!"

A couple of weeks ago, Lindsay Howes and I sat down in her office to talk about a handful of different things. One was room configurations and how we can split up the 3 and 4 year old class on Sunday...which rooms could we use...how many more volunteers would that mean on Sunday mornings...because IT IS CROWDED!!!! Again, another great problem to have!

This past Sunday, I taught our 4th and 5th grade Sunday School class. It's a great group of tweens with more energy than you or I will ever have again. They're always excited when they get in the room. We always play a game that relates to their lesson that day. I'm pretty sure the game is their favorite part. Even after they go crazy playing games that involve throwing tennis balls in buckets or hitting them with frisbees, they never fail to amaze me with their depth. They ask the greatest questions and think about the biggest concepts. At 9 and 10 years old, they are thinking more deeply about their faith than many adults. Each time I leave their classroom, I'm reminded why I do what I do...and why problems like crowded classrooms are the best problems to have.

I'm speaking for Jere right now...but I bet he thinks the same thing.

Monica
