Team members have followed doctors on rounds at the hospital and visited a new mobile clinic that goes out twice a week to two villages, that, with people coming from surrounding areas, serves 46 villages. Karen Cook and Susan Thorne also observed several surgeries. Team members have visited the Rambo School, reading and singing with classes. Dr. Anil Henry, director of the hospital, led a tour of the campus and the new construction. Susan Garner has taught yoga to 7th graders and Susan Thorne delivered the message at morning chapel. A second team will arrive next week.

Discernment Committee Seeks Your Input

By Elvin Knight, Committee Chair

As you are aware Dr. Glen Miles resigned in late November to accept a new pastoral call in the spring. While we are saddened that Dr. Miles is leaving us, we are supportive of his next endeavor.

The Congregational Board has appointed a Discernment Committee to discern the qualities the congregation desires in a senior minister. We are asking each of you to provide your opinion of the characteristics you believe are important for a senior minister at Country Club Christian Church. Please feel free to express your opinions through one or more of the following methods:

1. A congregational meeting will be held on Sun., Jan. 22, at 10:00 a.m in the Social Hall.
2. We will meet with Elders and Deacons in a joint meeting on Tues., Feb. 7.
3. Any member of the congregation may provide his or her opinion of what you desire in a senior minister by emailing discernment@cccckc.org.
4. We will solicit your opinions through Survey Monkey, an online survey. We will ask you to respond to the survey and answer a variety of questions in regards to the qualities of a senior minister. In addition we invite you to provide narrative. Please watch your email for a notice from the church with a link to the survey. The survey will also be available in paper form in the church office.
5. Please feel free to personally contact any member of the Discernment Committee. Committee members are Elvin Knight, Mary Dibble, Dan Jensen, Amy Rose, Matt Moeder, Amy Holmes and Betsy Wilson.

Your contribution is essential in this initial step. Your input will be used to develop the job description of our next leader. We appreciate your assistance and your prayers as we begin this next step in the life of Country Club Christian Church.

Guest Preacher Announced

By Jen Parker, Chair of Personnel Committee

The Personnel Committee announces that in addition to our existing clergy, Dr. Mike Graves has agreed to serve as guest preacher for Sunday worship services over the next few months. He will preach at all three worship services during this period.

Dr. Graves is a member of Country Club Christian Church and serves on the faculty at the Saint Paul School of Theology. In his capacity as Saint Paul's William K. McElvaney Professor of Preaching and Worship, Dr. Graves has extensive experience in the pulpit and has preached at Country Club Christian Church many times in the past.

All pastoral concerns during this time should continue to be directed to Rev. Carla Aday, Rev. Joe Walker or Rev. Monica Lewis. As previously mentioned, an interim Senior Minister is not being pursued at this time and Executive Minister Rev. Carla Aday will continue to supervise the staff.

The Secret Plan of God

By Dr. R. Glen Miles

The Apostle Paul, writing to a church in Ephesus, proclaims, “This mystery was not made known to humankind as it has now been revealed...” What is the mystery? What is the secret? God loves everyone. That’s it. That’s the mystery. God’s grace is not reserved for a special few who think alike and look alike and share similar beliefs. Nope. God’s grace is for everyone. How is the world supposed to discover this mystery, this “secret plan of God,” as Eugene Peterson describes it? Through the church. Our task as followers of Jesus is to share this good news with the world!

Paul wrote “both of us have access...to God.” The word both refers to Jews and Gentiles. He is saying everyone, through the love and grace of Jesus, is invited to participate fully in the family of God.

Paul makes a very strong case for this inclusive Gospel by recalling his own life as an example. In Ephesians 3:8 he writes, “although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ...” Paul, before he was a famous Christian missionary, persecuted Christians.

Do you see what Paul is driving at here? God came to him, the lowest of the low, a cruel and dangerous person, and God chose Paul to be the great leader in the church, to be the one who would preach this message of grace and love for everyone. The self-deprecatory tone that Paul uses here is almost untranslatable into English. “I am the lowest of the low; I am at the bottom of the trash pile.” And yet, this is the one God called.

Paul concludes in Ephesians 3:13, “I pray therefore that you may not lose heart...” Great advice. Do not lose heart in this frightening world. Remember that God can work in the middle of anything and bring about the good news of God’s love for all.

You know what? It’s not supposed to be a secret. Take this word to the world and let God’s love be given and received.

Grace and peace to you,

Adult Ministries at Country Club Christian Church

Via Spiritual Renewal Retreats in 2017

Save the dates for men's and women's spiritual retreats at Tall Oaks Conference Center in 2017.

Men: Mar. 31-Apr. 2

Women: Oct. 20-22

These retreats will be the same as those offered in 2016. If you missed out, this is your chance to experience the renewal provided to all participants. Life gets busy and it is easy to drift away from the journey of faith. The retreats are designed to build friendships, provide personal reflection time, and have fun while also reconnecting with the Spirit of God. Participants will learn new forms of prayer and spiritual patterns, enjoy the beauty of nature, and have time to relax and play.

The men's retreat will be led by Rev. Joe Walker, Minister of Congregational Care, and Dr. Mike Graves, St. Paul School of Theology.

Cost is $125 per person. This Sunday, Jan. 15, is the deadline for the early registration rate of $110 for men's retreat. The early registration for women's retreat is Aug. 15.

Stay Informed

By Lara Schopp, Director of Communications

Last week my daughter's school had two snow days. She, like most school-aged children, was thrilled. I remember those days of going to bed hoping for snow: waking up in the wee hours to peek out my window and check for accumulation; listening for my school's name on the radio's list of cancellations; excitement at a free day with nothing planned except maybe some sledding with my friends.

A couple of Sundays ago, right before Christmas, we made the call to cancel our two early worship services due to extreme cold and ice. We don't like to cancel church, especially on a Sunday, and it doesn't happen very often. But inclement weather is inevitable in this part of the country, and we want our members, visitors, volunteers and staff to be safe, so we will err on the side of caution.

When we have to close the church, we make every effort to inform you. On page 6 you can read more about our process for communicating closures. We use email, our website, social media and when we can, local news stations. But inevitably, it's not enough. Someone doesn't get the message and ventures out in what might be dangerous weather only to arrive at a closed church. We don't want that to happen.

So, like the notice on page 6 says, we want you to check our communication resources before you leave home during iffy weather. But you know what? We want you to check those resources during regular weather, too!

There is so much going on in the life of the church that it can be hard to keep up with it all. And I am very aware that everyone's email inboxes are super clogged with mostly spam these days.

But to fully participate in the life of this church, you need to be informed about what's happening here, and the best way to do that is to read our emailed newsletter, follow our Facebook page, and check in on our website regularly. You'll also stay more informed by coming to worship regularly and reading The Journey Ahead bulletin insert, which is a mini-newsletter.

We make every effort not to overload your inbox. The newsletter email only comes every other Friday, and it should just take you a few minutes to scan headlines. If you don't already follow us on Facebook and Twitter, please start. You might be missing valuable information about the life of the church.

If you're not already on our email distribution list, let me know (laras@cccckc.org) and I'll make sure you're added. I look forward to sharing all of the goings-on at Country Club Christian Church with you this year!

Lara

Weather Closing Information

During the winter months when the weather can be unpredictable, we encourage you to check the church's Facebook page or website when there is extreme cold, ice or snow before heading out to church. Although we prefer not to close the church, when there is inclement weather—particularly on Sundays—we want you, our volunteers and our staff to be safe. We will always post weather closings on our website and on Facebook, and in the event of a Sunday closing we will also send an all-church email. If you are not currently receiving church emails, please contact Paul Cutelli at paulc@cccckc.org. When we can we also notify the local news stations of our closings. Because of its more flexible reporting system, KMBC Channel 9 will have the most accurate information from us. However, you will always get the most reliable, detailed information if you check Facebook or our website. Stay safe and warm during these cold winter months!

First Fridays

By Rev. Monica Lewis, Minister to Children, Students and Families

I've lived in Kansas City for about six years now. And as long as I've lived here, I've wanted to go to First Fridays in the Crossroads District. Six years and I've never gone. I follow hundreds of local artists on social media and spend my nights flipping through their posts to see all of the fun and creative stuff they're making.

Like so many of you, my family is living in that in-between time where weekend evenings don't really exist in the same way they used to. Our weekend nights are typically spent with a popcorn and movie night at home and play dates that turn in to a well-rehearsed plea for friends to stay for dinner. I love this. I love all of this. But sometime, I'd like to go to First Friday. And I know many of you parents reading this would, too. Keep reading to find out how you can sneak away to get some time for you!

Beginning Fri., Feb. 3, our Children and Student Ministries will begin offering new programming – First Fridays!

We will meet in our church building February and March of this academic year (join us at Country Club Christian Church's annual Celebration Dinner and Auction the first Friday of April) and we'll kick off 2017-2018 academic year with First Fridays, September-May. Each month will be a little different. Sometimes we might have a food truck style dinner, others may enjoy a hot cocoa bar, or maybe they'll get a little taste of First Friday art culture with an art fair. This will be fun, trendy, and a great place to be on Friday nights while parents get to enjoy an evening out on the town.

For our 3-5th graders, First Fridays will be a time of fun, fellowship and faith development. Think Club Kids meets food truck meets youth group. We are eager to dig in deep with this age group and give them a taste of what the older kids get to do in youth group. This will be an opportunity to connect this age group in relationship with one another and to enrich their faith at a time in life where tough questions become the norm.

Our 6th-8th graders will meet on First Friday in addition to weekly youth group during the other weeks of the month. For this age group, First Fridays will be a great event to bring friends, play awesome games, grow together in faith and live out their lives in deeper and meaningful relationships with one another. They'll eat good food – you can guarantee them that!

If you are interested in volunteering to help with First Fridays, please contact Lindsay Howes (lindsayh@cccckc.org) or Chuck Pickrel (chuckp@cccckc.org).

For families who would like more specific information about First Fridays, make sure to check your weekly Wednesday email.
