Celebration of Dr. Miles on Sunday, February 5 One Service at 10:30 a.m.

As you know, we are preparing to say farewell to our senior minister, Dr. Glen Miles, who will be leaving Country Club Christian Church to accept the position of senior minister at First Community Church in Columbus, Ohio. Glen's last Sunday with us is Feb. 5.

Infant dedication

We have been blessed by Glen's leadership. During his tenure, our church championed international mission trips; established partnerships in Kansas City's historic Northeast area; successfully completed the restoration of our building; and directed hundreds of thousands of dollars and volunteer hours to feed the hungry, clothe the poor, and support the impoverished both locally and internationally.

We have heard the promise of grace to all of God's people through Glen's prophetic and inspiring preaching, and our congregation has taken that message out into the world through our welcoming and support of our neighbors near and far.

With Lisa McCleish at Celebration of Service

Join us in worship on Feb. 5, where we will celebrate and honor Glen's 14 years of ministry here. There will be only one service that day, at 10:30 a.m., followed by a reception in the social hall.

Grace and Peace to You

By Dr. R. Glen Miles

I cannot even begin to describe what it feels like to say goodbye to all of you at Country Club Christian Church. Your gracious love, constant kindness and ongoing prayers are gifts I will carry with me the rest of my life.

One of the greatest things you have done is help me learn how to let go of fear. I recognize the irony of this gift. After all, I preached often and regularly about leaving fear behind, about letting our faith and the promise of God’s grace guide us in all we do and say. I believe in this message but there were times in our shared ministry when I was very concerned, afraid even, that the steps we were taking were the right ones. Time and time again, many of you stepped into a place where I was filled with fright (without even realizing it) and said or did just the right thing to help me get through.

A few years back a long-time member of our church came into my office without an appointment and announced, “I have a sense you need to be prayed for today. May I pray with you?” I said, “Of course,” and by the end of her prayer my face was filled with tears. Moments like that were repeated over coffee, lunch, and the phone. Last year, on one of our small group prayer runs, my running partner spoke words so encouraging I felt as though the very voice of God was speaking right to me!

Another thing you all have done for me is help me learn how to trust in the Spirit of God and in each other. I firmly believe the Spirit is at work in this place. There are many wonderful signs of new life emerging, of energy being restored, of hope being rekindled. By learning to trust in each other we’ve seen the power of God made real. This church is blessed with tremendous lay leadership. Every accomplishment we have achieved here during the last 14 years is a direct result of the talented and committed leaders who have been more than willing to do whatever it takes to see our ministry thrive.

Finally, there are many other gifts I could name but none more valuable than the gift of grace. I came on to this campus preaching grace but I saw grace made real in your lives, your love and your efforts to care for each other. Your gracious reception of me as your pastor, your love for Julie and our boys, Nate and Steven, will stand forever as symbols of the great love and grace God has poured out on all of you, the merciful and tender-hearted people of Country Club Christian Church.

Grace and peace to you,

Tender Loving Care for Sheffield Place

Our February Collection Connection will offer a little tender loving care to the homeless mothers and their children at Sheffield Place.

Your donation of a gift bag will bring a smile to the face of a mother who is working diligently towards healing and self-sufficiency. Bags (or items for gift bags) may include:

- Women's personal care and hygiene products
- Gift cards for gasoline and medicine

Gift bags and items may be placed in the collection basket in our parlor. Donations by cash or check, or text (816-839-9410) may be made by indicating "MetroMissions" on your gift.

Sheffield Place is unique among our partners serving the homeless. Counseling services are provided by licensed, master's level therapists on site. Mothers average a six-month stay and there is provision for ongoing case management and supportive services once the family transitions from the shelter to permanent housing in the community. For information about volunteer opportunities, contact Barbara George, barbarag@cccckc.org.

Prayer Ministry on the Road

Laurel Mace (standing) led our singing during January's Prayer Ministry on the Road at Bishop Spencer Place. On the third Thursday of each month we offer a service of Word and Communion for residents at a local retirement community.

Via Spiritual Renewal Retreats in 2017

Men: Mar. 31-Apr. 2; Women: Oct. 20-22

Save the dates for spiritual retreats at Tall Oaks Conference Center in 2017. Cost is $125 per person. An early registration rate of $110 is available for women's retreat until Aug. 15. Child care will be available at the church by reservation on the Saturday morning of each retreat.

Life gets busy and it is easy to drift away from the journey of faith. The retreats are designed to build friendships, provide personal reflection time, and have fun while also reconnecting with the Spirit of God.

"Finding the time to spend a weekend away from home is tough, but this time should really be thought of as an investment and there is no investment that pays greater dividends than one made in yourself and in your circle of friends." —Kurt Zschietzschmann, a 2016 participant.

The men's retreat will be led by Rev. Joe Walker, Minister of Congregational Care, and Dr. Mike Graves, St. Paul School of Theology.

BUILDING COMMUNITY BOOK by BOOK

All-Church Read: The Well and the Mine by Gin Phillips

"After she threw the baby in, nobody believed me for the longest time. But I kept hearing that splash." So begins this year's Book by Book all-church read.

Described as exploring "the value of community, charity, family and hope that we can give each other during a time of hardship," The Well and the Mine transports the reader back to the coal mining region of 1930s Alabama in the manner of To Kill a Mockingbird.

Buy the book in The Well, sign up for a one-time discussion with fellow members and friends in homes and coffee shops and be sure to hear the author on Thur., May 11 at 7:00 p.m. at the church and meet her at the reception following. Join others in building community at Country Club Christian Church "Book by Book."

Opportunities Abound

By Anne Haraughty, Ministries Coordinator

If I haven't had the pleasure of meeting you yet, I'm Anne Haraughty, Ministries Coordinator of Adult Education and Enrichment Programs.

I joined the staff in 2016 and have thoroughly enjoyed being part of this church family. Thanks to you all for being so welcoming of me.

If you haven't had the pleasure of joining a new adult education program recently, now is the perfect time to try out something new. We have something for everyone; we have something for YOU!

- For adults in their mid-20s to mid-40s, we are launching a new class called Connections on Sunday mornings at 10:00 a.m. starting Feb. 26.
- For men of all ages, we have a weekend retreat called VIA at Tall Oaks Conference Center Mar. 31-Apr. 2. Don't worry, ladies. The women's retreat is this fall – Oct. 20-22.
- For singles, couples, and families, we have a summer camp experience at the YMCA of the Rockies near Estes Park, Colorado June 3-10.
- For avid readers and book club members we have a church-wide book read called Building Community Book-by-Book. This year our church is reading The Well and the Mine by Gin Phillips. The author will speak at our church on May 11 at 7:00 p.m. How cool is that?
- For shoppers, we have an in-church gift shop called The Well. The proceeds from your purchases benefit Week of Compassion, which is the relief, refugee, and development mission fund of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ).
- For women who want to explore scripture and build relationships with fellow Christian women, we have Faithbook on Tuesday evenings or Wednesday mornings.
- For yoga enthusiasts, we have yoga classes on Monday and Wednesday mornings, led by a certified yoga instructor.
- For adults who want to study the Bible, we have classes on Wednesday morning and evening.

I could go on and on with opportunities you have at Country Club Christian Church. I do hope you'll consider trying something new this year. I know you will be glad that you did!

Way Beyond the Cookies

By Rev. Joe Walker, Minister of Congregational Care

Joe: "Did you know I have a Girl Scout award?"

Girl Scout: "Whaaat?" (complete with a side glance and a little head shake)

Joe: "Because I helped start two Girl Scout troops."

Girl Scout: "Reeeeaaly?" (with another doubting head shake)

It was an amusing little exchange that began last Sunday as I was visiting with one of our young moms and her daughter in our rotunda. In the course of our conversation the mom began telling me what a natural salesperson her daughter is as evidenced by her success moving boxes of Girl Scout Cookies in their neighborhood. I enthusiastically complimented our young member and praised the work of the organization. Then, mostly just for fun, I threw in the quirky anecdote about how my long-standing support of the Girl Scouts had earned me a lapel pin.

But tossing in the anecdote wasn't solely for the bemused reaction of our young member. Encoded in that exchange was a clear message that I valued her and her affiliation with a quality organization and her family's involvement and support of that association. In a somewhat unconventional but memorable manner I communicated that I believe in her and her organization way beyond my $5 investment in a box of (delicious) thin mints.

The Boy Scouts are with us this coming weekend as we celebrate Scout Sunday. Same deal here: I don't just buy a wreath (or whatever they may be selling). I always make it a point to strike up a brief conversation with the young man and the parents or leaders so as to hear about what they are doing and enjoying and learning.

Throughout the year we are all presented with many informal (and golden!) opportunities to acknowledge and encourage and thank our young people. Think about all of our middle and high school students we pass in the halls on Sunday. Or those who greet us or hand us the offering plate in worship. The ones who serve alongside us during Hartman Elementary School's after school sports leagues (it's basketball season right now). Our teammates during Grace At Work (save-the-date, Apr. 22).

We know from all kinds of studies that our children and teens thrive when they are valued and included and empowered. And while a "Reeeeaaly?" isn't a very scientific measurement, I'm pretty sure it is a good indication of progress in the right direction for the student and for our community.

Joe
